Dear ILTA Membership -

ILTA Lobbyist, Charlie Hiltunen, has been working feverishly to find a home for our mandate to have Court Administration provide solutions for the judgment docket issue. Our language has been added in conference to HB 1495. The bill will be going back to the Senate for a vote possibly this afternoon. The bill barely passed the first time around. If your Senator is on the following list or you know them, please reach out ASAP to them about how voting YAY on this legislation that would also help the land title industry.
