

Young Title Professionals Report

The Young Title Professionals were unable to host in person events this year due to COVID restrictions most of the year. We are currently brainstorming events for 2021 and looking into switching our goals and offering more of a mentorship program in addition to our usual events. After convention, we will finalize who the new YTP Chair will be for 2021 and start planning future events.