The Marion County Auditor's Office remains in operation and will continue to serve the residents of Marion County and our governmental partners. Until further notice, however, in-person public access to our office in the City-County Building is restricted due to the coronavirus (COVID-19). In the meantime, many of our services remain available to the public via the internet:

Tax Bills

To view current property tax bills, use the Treasurer's property tax bill service at <https://www.indy.gov/activity/pay-your-property-taxes-in-full> or call the Treasurer at 317-327-4444.

Property Tax Deductions

You may apply for a property tax deduction or view the status of a current deduction by visiting the following web page and clicking the green box to browse services and other information: <https://www.indy.gov/agency/marion-county-auditors-office>

Tax Sale

- To redeem a property offered for sale in the 2019 Marion County Tax Sale, you may find the redemption amount at <https://www.indy.gov/activity/find-property-redemption-amount>.
- During the time that in-person access is restricted, you may continue to redeem tax sale properties using a certified/cashier's check or money order sent by mail to our office at 200 E. Washington St., Suite 841, Indianapolis, IN. We cannot accept personal/business checks or credit cards for tax sale redemptions at any time and are temporarily restricting the use of cash due to the restriction on in-person public access.
- Redemption amounts can change daily, so please use the redemption calculator to establish the redemption date upon which you plan to mail your certified/cashier's check or money order to us. The redemption will be processed as of the date of your post-marked mailing.
